

Academic and National Library Training Co-operative www.anltc.ie

Priority Actions 2009-2012

In line with the ANLTC's mission to identify training and development needs within member Irish academic and national libraries, which form the basis of an ongoing co-operative training and development programme, through consultation offering a wide and innovative range of training opportunities to library staff at an economical rate; enabling staff to meet colleagues from other institutions to exchange experience; and to build their presentation skills via the opportunity to give training sessions; the ANLTC proposes the following Priority Actions for the period 2009 - 2013 (coordinator responsibility and timeframe included in brackets after each action):

- (1) Produce a Terms of Reference for ANLTC
(Jessie Kurtz/ December 2009)
- (2) All members to document their role descriptions
(Jessie Kurtz / December 2009)
- (3) Update and enhance the website to utilise current technology
(Paul Murphy/ January 2010)
- (4) Review online financial procedures for effective handling of course accounting
(Gráinne MacLochlainn/ September 2010)
- (5) Review ANLTC's role in the context of the conferences provided by IUISC, INULS, or the CONUL Colloquium and/or provide an annual conference around a broad theme related to Staff Training and Development or an annual low-charge thematic seminar on a current issue (e.g. copyright) (Helen Fallon/ ongoing)
- (6) Review the feasibility of an Irish Mentoring & an Irish job-shadowing programme
(Colette McKenna, Seamus McMahon, Jessie Kurtz/ June 2011)
- (7) Provide access to generic and specific member library guidelines for Staff Development and Training policies and procedures
(Ann Mitchell/ December 2010)

10th December 2009